A Tribute To Marilyn Monroe Now On Exhibition In Coral Gables

Posted Date: 8/29/2012

Even after 50 years since her death, the public is still intrigued by the life of Marilyn Monroe. One of the most important collective art exhibitions honoring her memory is taking place right here in Coral Gables.

From now until October 10, the Galleria Ca'd'Oro is pleased to present "Marilyn Monroe, a Tribute to a Female Icon," a group exhibition of 21 artists celebrating the life of the screen goddess. The exhibit, curated by Gloria Porcella and Lamberto Petrecca, is intended not only for those who appreciate the arts, but also for the ultimate Marilyn fan. This vibrant celebration of the Hollywood star not only pays tribute to the icon, but explores the woman behind one of the world's most quintessential sex symbols. The tribute to the American starlet comes to life in a 28-work exhibition that includes paintings, photographs, video, installations, and sculptures, including a life-size sculpture of Marilyn wearing the iconic white dress immortalized by Seward Johnson in her most famous pose.

Galleria Ca'd'Oro is located at 135 San Lorenzo Avenue and is open from Monday through Friday, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. For additional information, click here.
