

MIAMI™

Miami Art Month

The purpose of Miami Art Month is to generate awareness of the dozens of smaller art fairs and ancillary events that take place in addition to Art Basel Miami Beach, which takes place over five days at the beginning of December. During the rest of the month, Miami's galleries are bursting with art from around the world, and many special events take place throughout the city.

Art Basel provides the catalyst for an energetic art-filled month of gallery exhibits, street art, concerts, and much more. Miami Art Month in December opens a window into the amazing arts and cultural destination that Miami has become. Make time to explore Miami's art galleries, street murals, public art installations and more.

The wind doesn't have a plan, a Blue and Joy exhibition

11/22/2011 – 12/16/2011

Miami Dade College's (MDC) Art Gallery System, in collaboration with Galleria Ca' d'Oro and the Brickellian, presents the first exhibition at the Freedom Tower produced by MDC for Art Basel. Through the adventures of two characters, Blue and Joy, Italian artists Fabio La Fauci and Daniele Sigalot explore emotions beneath the surface. The art work blends painting, sculpture, mosaic, photography and digital media. In addition, the Freedom Tower will showcase smaller versions of the artists' large paper planes sculpted in aluminum, which will be displayed along Brickell Avenue during Art Basel. Free and open to the public. Gallery hours: Tue.-Sat., noon-4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 4, noon-4 p.m. (during Art Basel). An Art Basel satellite event.
