

SoFlaNights.com

Your event guide just a click away!

Artists' Reception: The Wind doesn't have a plan

Posted on: November 28th, 2011 by SoFlaNights

☆☆☆☆☆ Rating: 0.0/5 (0 votes cast)

Tuesday, November 29, 6 pm – Freedom Tower, Second Floor Gallery, 600 Biscayne Boulevard, Downtown Miami

Blue and Joy, characters created by renowned artists Fabio La Fauci and Daniele Sigalot, make their U.S. debut with an exciting indoor exhibition at the historic Freedom Tower Gallery. The exhibit features 26 of the artists' works including small-scale versions of Paperplanes, an outdoor public art display on Brickell Avenue. The exhibition is curated by Gloria Porcella, Lamberto Petrecca and Stella Holmes. The artists will be present at the reception.

An event poster for the exhibition 'The Wind doesn't have a plan'. The poster features a large, stylized orange paper airplane in the center. Text on the poster includes: 'Dr. Edward J. Patten, President Miami Dade College', 'In coordination with Galleria Car d'Arte and The Oldballein', 'cordially invite you to a special Artists' Reception of', 'he wind doesn't have a plan.', 'Blue and Joy Exhibition', 'curated by Gloria Porcella, Lamberto Petrecca and Stella Holmes', 'Tuesday, November 29, 6 p.m.', 'Miami Dade College's historic Freedom Tower Second Floor Gallery', '600 Biscayne Boulevard-Downtown Miami', and 'RP info@ica-dade.com T: 305.886.9153'. Logos for 'CYPRESS', 'MIAMI DADE COLLEGE', 'Galleria Car d'Arte', 'Oldballein', and 'M&E' are visible at the bottom.

RSVP: mdcevents@mdc.edu or 305-237-3959